Deposit/Disclosure

NOTE: All prices shown are MSRP. See your dealer for any additional fees and applicable taxes.

Buyer will pay a non-refundable deposit to dealer according to the COPO package selected, unless prohibited by law, at time of submission of Bill of Sale.

The required Deposit is $15,000

This deposit will be applied to the final payment made to the dealer for the COPO. Customer will have 72 hours from submission of Bill of Sale to cancel order. After this time, COPO is considered a sold order. If customer cancels order after this time, customer will forfeit the deposit. Neither this order, nor General Motors' acceptance of this order, is binding on General Motors. Many factors can affect the production and availability of COPO, including but not limited to component availability, production capacity, market and weather conditions, labor problems, government regulations and other factors that may be beyond the control of GM. General Motors therefore must reserve the right to cancel or delay the production of any COPO Camaro in its sole discretion.
